

Active Reading Strategies

Drag and drop the names of four active reading strategies to match them with the descriptions.

Strategy	Description
	Looking at the text before reading to understand lay-out, titles, sub-titles, content, pictures, graphs, etc.
	Understanding the meaning of unfamiliar words from the context.
	Highlighting or writing down key words in the text to build vocabulary.
	Reading quickly to understand main points.

Skimming	Inferring Meaning
Previewing the text	Noting key words

One of the five strategies we learned about is missing. What is it? Complete the strategy and description below.

Strategy	Description
	Reading quickly to find _____.