Hidayat and his grandfather are fishing at the sea. It is a very hot day.

Hidayat : Grandfather, did you go fishing when you were a young boy?

Grandfather : Oh, yes. I used to go fishing very often with my grandfather, he used to _____ me interesting stories about the way Brunei was when he was a boy many years ago.

Hidayat : What kind of things did he tell you?

Grandfather : He _____ me that he used to go fishing every day with his father. They caught lots of fish. They did not have a fridge in those days so they could not keep food for very long. They had to salt their fish to stop it from going bad, if they wanted fresh fish, they had to catch it every day.

Hidayat : Oh great! No school! Fishing every day!

Grandfather : Ah, yes, but fishing was very _____ in those days.

Hidayat : Why was it hard?

Grandfather : Well, people did have engines for their boats then. They had to paddle. Paddling a boat makes you very tired, especially on a _____ day like today.

Hidayat : Did your grandfather fish at the same places? Did he go to Pulau Muara Besar like we do sometimes?

Grandfather : Oh no. It is too far to go _____ Pulau Muara Besar.

Hidayat : So where did they go fishing?

Grandfather : They _____ fishing near the Brunei River.

Hidayat : Were their _____ the same as ours?

Grandfather : No. My grandfather used a boat called perahu gubang. It was _____ from a hollowed-out log.

Hidayat : I never heard of a boat called perahu gubang before.

Grandfather : No one makes them anymore. Nowadays, we have boats made from fiberglass.

Hidayat : Yes, I heard about the boats made from _____. They are light and durable.

Grandfather : Look! You caught a fish!

Hidayat : Wow! My first _____ for today.
