

ENGLISH EXAM

NAME: _____

_____ grade

Mrs. Lopez

April _____

I. WRITE the adjectives in each of the following sentences, and WRITE the word each adjective modifies. Do not include a, an, or the. TOTAL 5% 1C/U

1. The small plane made several attempts to land safely.
2. What lucky fishing group caught those trout?
3. Gertrude has developed an interesting and successful plan to save money.
4. Ancient glaciers have created a large wilderness in northern Labrador.
5. The fox dashed across the grassy meadow, looking for some food.

II. Complete each sentence below by writing an appropriate adverb on the line provided. The word or phrase in parentheses tells you what information the adverb should give about the verb. TOTAL 5% 1C/U

- The mechanics couldn't locate the necessary part _____ (where), so they can't fix the car _____ (when).
6. Michael speaks Spanish _____ (how).
 7. The bird sang _____ (to what extent) _____ (where).
 8. Steve _____ (how) imagined what it would feel like to win the marathon _____ (when).
 9. Ada May _____ (how) described to everybody what happened _____ (where).
 10. Kito spoke _____ (to what extent) and _____ (how) about recycling.

III. WRITE the linking verb in each sentence below. Then WRITE the two words that each verb links. TOTAL 10% 2C/U

1. Marguerita feels peaceful after a long run.
2. The tacos on that platter smell delicious.
3. Virgil seemed anxious before class today.
4. Wanda's older brother is my math tutor.
5. That story became a myth among the Seneca people.

IV. Complete the sentences below. Add helping verbs to the verbs in parentheses to create verb phrases. TOTAL 10% 2C/U

- I _____ (act) nicer when she told me, but I never hide my feelings.
6. However, she _____ (pay) for the tickets, and my conscience warned me to be more agreeable.
7. So I said I _____ (go), but I dreaded it.
8. Well, I _____ (be) the first person to admit it when I am wrong.
9. I _____ (expect) to be miserable.
10. From the moment the curtain _____ (raise), I was thrilled with the colorful costumes, the lively music, the characters, and the story.