

COURSE 1 – LESSON 2 (PRESENT PERFECT)

POSITIVE FORM OF IRREGULAR VERBS

REGULAR VERBS – “ED” PRONUNCIATION

Task 1: Circle the correct answer.

1. How do you pronounce the /ed/ ending in “designed”?
A. /t/ B. /d/ C. /ɪd/
2. How do you pronounce the /ed/ ending in “invented”?
A. /t/ B. /d/ C. /ɪd/
3. How do you pronounce the /ed/ ending in “produced”?
A. /t/ B. /d/ C. /ɪd/
4. Choose the word whose /ed/ ending is pronounced differently from that of the others.
A. talked B. played C. asked D. liked
5. Choose the word whose /ed/ ending is pronounced differently from that of the others.
A. worked B. stoped C. watched D. wanted
6. Choose the word whose /ed/ ending is pronounced differently from that of the others.
A. waited B. wanted C. mended D. worked
7. Choose the word whose /ed/ ending is pronounced differently from that of the others.
A. loved B. looked C. booked D. walked
8. Choose the word whose /ed/ ending is pronounced differently from that of the others.
A. kissed B. helped C. forced D. raised
9. Choose the word whose /ed/ ending is pronounced differently from that of the others.
A. devoted B. suggested C. provided D. played
10. What is the past participle of “begin”?
A. began B. beginned C. begun D. begined
11. What is the past participle of “break”?
A. broke B. broked C. breaked D. broken
12. What is the past participle of “buy”?
A. buyed B. buied C. boughted D. bought

13. What is the past participle of "come"?

- A. come B. came C. comed D. camed

14. They _____ already _____ the invitations.

- A. has ... send B. have ... sent C. has ... sent D. have ... send

15. _____ have _____ a lot of interesting English exercises this week.

- A. come B. came C. comed D. camed

Task 2: Fill use the blanks using the present perfect form of the verbs in brackets.

1. Winters _____ (be) colder over the past few years.
2. J.K.Rowling _____ (write) the Harry Potter fantasy series.
3. Daniel _____ (break) his right arm and now he can't write the test.
4. My mother _____ (take) my brother to school.
5. We _____ (see) that movie three times.