

COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS / HOW MUCH – HOW MANY

Task 1: Circle the correct answer.

1. Countable nouns are _____.
A. things we can't count. B. things we like.
C. things we can count. D. things we don't like.
2. Uncountable nouns are _____.
A. things we like. B. things we don't like.
C. things we can count. D. things we can't count.
3. What are countable nouns? (Choose all correct answers.)
A. cucumbers B. mustard C. tomato sauce D. green peppers E. olives
4. What are uncountable nouns? (Choose all correct answers.)
A. tomato sauce B. onions C. bread D. turkey E. lettuce
5. There is a banana in the fridge. What type of noun is "banana"?
A. plural countable noun B. uncountable noun C. singular countable noun
6. We need eggs for the cake. What type of noun is "eggs"?
A. plural countable noun B. uncountable noun C. singular countable noun
7. We have got some milk in the fridge. What type of noun is "milk"?
A. plural countable noun B. uncountable noun C. singular countable noun
8. _____ olives are there in the can?
A. How much B. How many
9. _____ tomato sauce does your mom need?
A. How many B. How much
10. Can I have _____ mustard, please?
A. some B. a C. an
11. She is eating _____ egg.
A. some B. a C. an

12. Choose all correct answers: Some _____

- A. bread B. bananas C. green pepper D. soup E. egg

Task 2: Fill in the blank. Using “some, a, an” or “How much, How many”.

1. She needs _____ butter to bake a cake.
2. _____ potatoes do you want?
3. _____ cheese do you need?
4. There is _____ orange in the basket.
5. I want _____ cucumber, please.

Task 3: Find the mistakes.

1. How many tomato sauce do you need for the pasta?
2. How many sugar have we got?
3. I drink an orange juice every day.