

Contractions with Not and Pronouns

You can put together two words and make a contraction. An apostrophe (') takes the place of any letter or letters that are left out. Many contractions combine a verb with not. The contraction won't is special. You form it from the words will not and change the spelling.

You can put a pronoun and a verb together to make a contraction. An apostrophe replaces the letter or letters that are left out.

We are spending the day at the water park.

We're spending the day at the water park. (combine we and are)

She will get a sunburn without sunscreen.

She'll get a sunburn without sunscreen. (combine she and will)

Write the contraction for the words in parentheses.

1. We _____ been skiing in a long time. (have not)
2. We _____ think it would be a hard sport. (did not)
3. Make sure _____ wearing your helmet! (you are)
4. _____ going to be the first one down the hill. (I am)
5. _____ tell us when the lifts are about to close. (They will)
6. _____ going to love skiing. (You are)
7. _____ been to this mountain three times. (We have)
8. _____ an experienced skier. (She is)
9. _____ reported it will snow three feet tonight. (They have)
10. _____ be happy to ski tomorrow if there is more snow. (We will)