TIME FOR OUTDOORS 4

1. Read the dialogue and choose the correct word below.

A: We are speaking to Mr Potapenko, the person who knows everything about the weather in Ukraine. Good morning, Mr Potapenko.

P: Good morning.

A: Can you tell us what the weather is going to be like in different places of Ukraine on Saturday and Sunday?

P: Of course, I can. It's going to be cold and cloudy in Lviv on Saturday, but it won't rain.

A: Is it going to rain in Lviv on Sunday?

P: Yes, it's better to take an umbrella on Sunday because this day will be rainy.

A: What about the weather in Ivano-Frankivsk?

P: The weather is going to be cloudy and windy but without rains on Saturday. On Sunday it's going to be warm but foggy.

A: What can you tell about the weather in Sumy?

P: It's going to be sunny and frosty on Saturday and it will be snowy on Sunday. You'd better put warm clothes on.

A: What is the weather going to be like in Kyiv?

P: It is going to be chilly and snowy on Saturday. On Sunday it will be sunny but cold.

A: Thank you, Mr Potapenko.

P: You are welcome.
