Let peace be in your heart

For the one are all a part

No matter what colour or race or creed

We come from one source, the Divine Sacred Seed.

1- What is the Rhyme scheme?

2- This line (("No matter what color or race or creed")) contains……

a-Alliteration b- consonance c- repetition

3- In line 2 "For the one we are all a part." Both words "one" and "part" are ……

a- Alliteration b – assonance c – antithesis

4- In the first line The poet telling us that our hearts should be filled with……

a-Peace b- hate c- worship

Let love flow from one to another

Father and mother and sister and brother

The animals too and birds of the air

In love we're all made and in love we should share.

1. This line "Father and mother and sister and brother" contains……. a- Repetition b. antithesis c. alliteration
2. What is the literary terms in line 1?

……

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3.Extract the alliteration from the stanza

……

……

4.What is the rhyme scheme?

……

The oceans and seas and trees growing tall

In love were created, in love to us call

Please care for us, treat us and know us with love

Let us all live together, in peace and in love.

1. In Line 2 "In love were created, in love to us call."
   a. Alliteration b. repetition c. consonance

2."The oceans and seas and trees growing tall" Identify the literary term.
a. Alliteration b. repetition c. consonance

3. Identify the personification

……

There are……stanzas in the poem.

a) 4 b) 5 c) 3

LIVEWORKSHEETS