

Read about each festival or celebration, then choose the right answer.

- |                                                                                                                                                                   |                          |                                               |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| 1. It is in the middle of the month of Ramadan and marked with children dressing in traditional attire and going door-to-door and carrying colourful bags. | <input type="checkbox"/> | A The National day of Bahrain          |
| 2. It is on the first day after the month of Ramadan. Families gather and children get lots of money.                                                             | <input type="checkbox"/> | B Eid Al Adha                   |
| 3. Bahraini people celebrate this day on the 16 th December of every year.                                                                             | <input type="checkbox"/> | C Eid AL Fitr.                  |
| 4. It is on the 10 th of Dhu al- Hijja when the pilgrims are performing Hajj (Pilgrimage).                                                      | <input type="checkbox"/> | D Gargee'an /Gerga'oon Festival |