

Non-defining relative clauses

1 Complete the sentences with who, which, where or whose.

1 My friend, _____ project about environmental protection won the competition, goes to an eco-school.

2 Car exhaust fumes, _____ cause a lot of pollution, are dangerous to human health.

3 Diving in a turquoise ocean, _____ is inhabited by numerous species, is an extraordinary experience.

4 The WWF, _____ mission is to conserve nature, is known worldwide.

5 Last week I interviewed Mark, _____ is in charge of our school's eco team.

6 The Amazon, _____ you can see amazing fauna and flora, has become a popular travel destination.

7 The panda, _____ is an vulnerable species, has been WWF's logo since 1961.

8 The animal rescuers finally caught an injured dolphin, _____ was seen near the coast.

9 The leader of the expedition, _____ was a well-known scientist, discovered a new species.

10. The Mediterranean, _____ many dolphins live, is becoming increasingly polluted.

2 Join the sentences with who, which, where or whose. Don't change the words given.

1 Betty wants to go to the zoo. Her birthday is on Saturday.

Betty _____.

2 Kevin looked after my pets when I was away. It was very kind of him.

Kevin _____.

3 John Stith Pemberton was an American chemist. He invented Coca-Cola.

John Stith Pemberton _____.

4 I tend to go on holiday to Spain or Morocco. The weather is always good there.

I _____.

5 In fact, Indian elephants also live in Nepal, and other Asian countries. They are smaller than African elephants.

In fact, Indian elephants _____.