

Renewable energy sources

1. Write true or false. Correct the false sentences.

- a. Renewable energy is produced continually in nature. _____
- b. Sunlight, wind and natural gas are renewable energy sources. _____
- c. Biomass is a fossil fuel. _____
- d. Biomass is found in plants and animals and their waste products. _____
- e. Renewable energy can be used to produce electricity. _____
- f. Wind and solar energy cause air pollution. _____

2. Write renewable energy sources or non-renewable energy sources.

- a. They will never run out. _____
- b. They cause air pollution. _____
- c. They will run out one day. _____
- d. Two examples are energy from the Sun and wind. _____
- e. They include fossil fuels, such as coal and natural gas. _____