

NAME: _____

1. Look, read and choose the correct option:

Peter the Poet lived in London in 1594. He wanted to be as famous as William Shakespeare. He called himself a poet, but he didn't write (1) much / many poetry! Peter's room was horrible! There was only (2) a lot of / a little light because the window was small. There was (3) a few / a lot of paper in a big pile and there was (4) much / enough ink for several books of poems, but he couldn't write because he was hungry. There was only (5) a little / a few bread to eat and beer to drink. There wasn't (6) many / much wood to burn either, so he was always cold. His room was dirty, and (7) enough / a lot of spiders and mice lived there, too. There were always (8) a lot of / a little books lying around his room. He always kept (9) a few / much quills ready in case he had an idea, and because he always scratched his head while he was thinking, there wasn't (10) a few / a lot of hair left on it!

Poor Peter!

2. Look at the recipe and match the sentences halves:

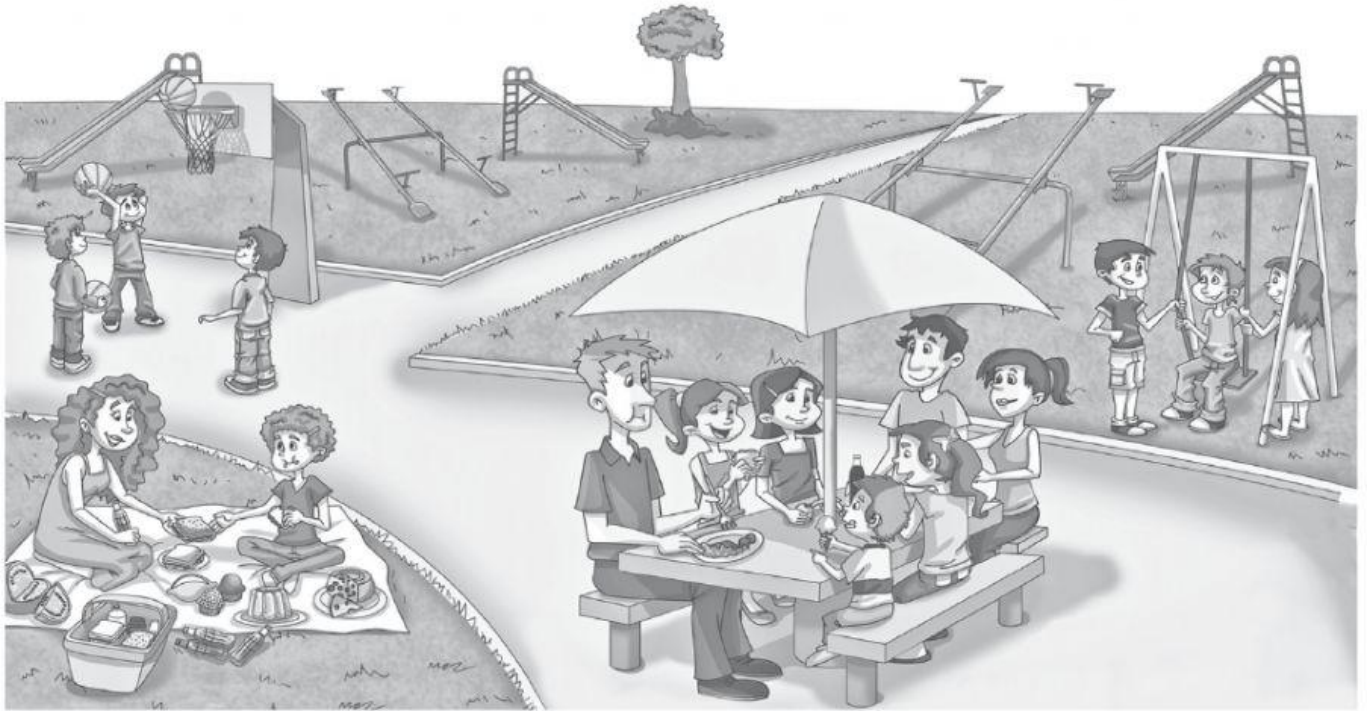

Paul and Maya made an unusual cake!

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. There wasn't enough flour | a. but we put a lot in because we like them. |
| 2. There was only a little sugar | b. so we used a little breakfast cereal. |
| 3. There wasn't any milk in the fridge | c. so we poured in a little orange juice. |
| 4. The recipe asked for only a few chocolate chips | d. so we added a lot of sweets. |
| 5. We didn't need any butter | e. but we did find a lot of jelly. |
| 6. We couldn't find many eggs | f. because we used a little jam. |

1 1/2 cups flour + 1 cup cereal
1 cup sugar + sweets
1/2 cup milk no milk so use orange juice
1/2 cup chocolate chips 2 cups chocolate chips
3/4 cup butter jam
13 eggs + 2 packets of jelly

3. Look at the picture and complete the sentences with correct statements using too much, too many, enough, not enough:

1. There are _____ picnic tables.
2. There are _____ swings for the kids.
3. There are _____ basketballs.
4. The mother and daughter have got _____ food.
5. There are _____ bottles on the table.
6. There are _____ slides and seesaws.