

British newspapers

Match the newspaper with its description.

«Edinburgh
Evening
News»

A daily newspaper that focuses on business and economic current affairs.

«Metro»

A newspaper that is published once a week. It contains popular articles on celebrities, with much gossip and many photographs.

«Financial Times»

A Scottish regional newspaper that is printed daily, except Sundays. It concerns local issues such as transport, health, sport, crime.

«Sunday Mirror»

A free newspaper that is distributed on trains and buses, railway and underground stations, airports and hospitals. The newspaper contains entertainment news, features and sport.