READ AND COMPLETE WITH THE CORRECT FORM OF THE VERBS

Deserts _____(to be) the driest places on Earth—they_____(to get) very little rain a year. Some deserts can get a lot of rain and then it may not rain again for months—or even years!

Some _____(to be) superhot in the day, but they can get cold at night.

Deserts_____(not to be) always hot—the biggest desert in the world is Antarctica!

If you _____(to think) nothing can live in a desert, you _____(to be)wrong! Many deserts _____(to have) lots of plants and animals that have adapted to live with little water.

This _____(to be) a cactus plant. It _____(to store) water in its stems. When it _____(not to rain) it can survive with the water it _____(to have) inside.

This coyote _____(to live) in the desert. It _____(to stay) in a burrow underground in the day and _____(to come)out at night to hunt.