TERRITORIAL ORGANIZATION

1- Spain is a country located in the _____ hemisphere. It has _____ autonomous communities and 2 autonomous cities. Each autonomous community has its own capital _____. My autonomous community is called _____ y _____. The President is _____ Fernández _____ . He represents a political party called the _____ _____ . The autonomous cities are located in the north of _____. They are called Ceuta and _____ .

REGIONAL GOVERNMENT

2- Autonomous communities and cities hold elections every ____ years. Citizens must be _____ years old to vote. When citizens vote, they vote for representatives called _____ . These representatives form _____ and elect the _____. The president chooses _____ to run the autonomous government.

3- A document that defines the powers of an autonomous community or city is called a _____ of _____ . Before it becomes legal, it must be approved by Spanish _____ .

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

4- Municipal elections are held every ____ years. Voters elect representatives called _____ . These representatives, from different municipalities, form the _____ . They choose one person to lead the municipal government called a _____ .

5- Order the following from smallest to largest:

province - country - autonomous community - municipality

_____ ➡ _____ ➡ _____ ➡ _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS