

Read the descriptions of life in the Stone Age. Decide if they refer to the Palaeolithic or the Neolithic.

- a People began to farm crops and livestock. _____
- b People controlled fire. _____
- c Tools and weapons were made out of carved stone. _____
- d People settled in one place and did not move around. _____
- e The name of the period means 'new stone'. _____
- f People lived in caves and basic huts. _____
- g They were hunter-gatherers. _____
- h People began to trade goods. _____

Match the words to their meanings.

a sedentary ☐

b barter ☐

c nomad ☐

d carve ☐

e polish ☐

f primitive ☐

g settle ☐

☐ make a place your home

☐ not advanced; basic

☐ make the surface of something smooth

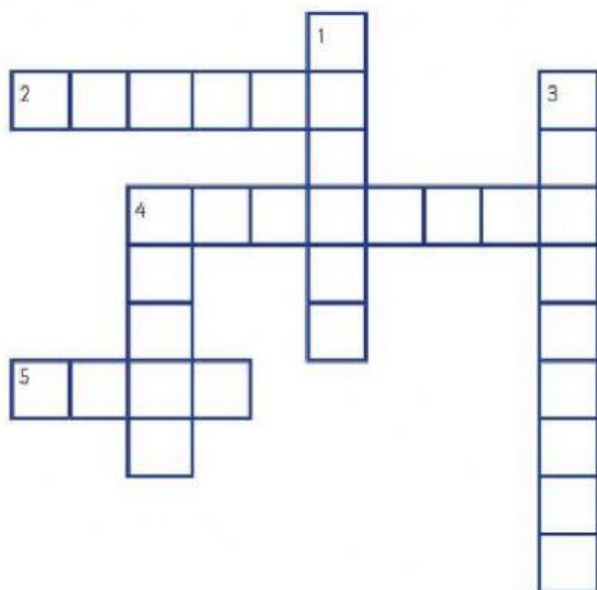

☐ living in the same place throughout your life

☐ someone who moves from place to place, and does not live in one place all their life

☐ cut a hard material to give it shape

☐ exchange goods without using a currency

Complete the crossword using words from the unit.

DOWN

- 1 This metal is a mixture of copper and tin.
- 3 This period of history comes after the Stone Age.
- 4 This is the name of a mixture of two metals.

ACROSS

- 2 This was the first metal used to make tools and weapons.
- 4 When something is available in large quantities, we say it is ...
- 5 This metal is stronger than copper and bronze.