

British magazines:

> Read the description of the magazine and unscramble its name:

1. A magazine that focuses on satirical and current affairs news. It is published once in two weeks.

a r t P e i v e E y
□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

2. A weekly magazine current affairs, international business, politics, technology and culture.

e T h o E c n i o m s t
□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

3. A monthly magazine that is famous for its home interior decoration articles, reader homes, high street shopping news and customer advice.

e l a d l H e m o
□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

4. A weekly magazine that covers all aspects of science and technology.

e N w t s e t c i n i S

5. A magazine that contains article on culture, entertainment and events.

e T m i u t O

6. A weekly magazine that focuses on celebrity gossip, TV news, real life stories, fashion and beauty tips, ideas on homes, interiors and food, product reviews and advice.

a m o W n