

Name:

Class:

Power Up! Test Practice

15. A window has the dimensions shown. Determine if each statement is true or false.

- a. The area of the trapezoidal section of the window is 1,620 square centimeters. ☐ True ☐ False
- b. The area of the rectangular section of the window is 10,800 square centimeters. ☐ True ☐ False
- c. The area of the entire window is 5,940 square centimeters. ☐ True ☐ False

16. The shaded part of the grid represents the plans for a fish pond. Each square on the grid represents 5 square meters. Fill in the boxes to complete each statement.

- a. There are full squares in the pond. This represents an area of square meters.
- b. There are half squares in the pond. This represents an area of square meters.
- c. What is the total area of the fish pond?

