

Fill in the blanks with the correct words with inverted word order according to the given sentence. (Write only one word in each blank!!!)

- I had been in the room for a few minutes when I realized that everyone was staring at me.
= Only after I had been in the room for a few minutes _____ that everyone was staring at me.
- He discovered that he had injured his knee when he tried to run.
= Only when he tried to run _____ that he had injured his knee.
- The new park was hardly finished when vandals destroyed the flowerbeds.
= Hardly _____ when vandals destroyed the flowerbeds.
- You shouldn't sign a contract you haven't read thoroughly under any circumstances.
= Under no circumstances _____ a contract you haven't read thoroughly
- She's so familiar with the dolphins that she calls them by name.
= _____ with the dolphins that she calls them by name.
- If he hadn't gone out every night, he might have passed his exams.
= _____ every night, he might have passed his exams.
- He's a good liar and everyone believes him.
= Such _____ that everyone believes him.
- People will like you if you like yourself.
= Only if you like yourself, _____ .
- He had just left when it started raining.
= No sooner _____ it started raining.

Complete the sentences using the words in brackets with the verb in the correct form.

- Not until the area is made safe _____ (the construction/can continue).
- In no way _____ (the announcement/affect) how strongly we felt about the situation.
- Seldom _____ (you/see) a vintage car in quite such good condition these days.
- Not only _____ (Paul/forget) my birthday, but he also forgot our wedding anniversary.
- At no time _____ (I/ask) my opinion on the subject during the discussion.
- Only when I checked the ticket again _____ (I/realise) that I had won first prize!
- Only if the weather is clear tomorrow, _____ (we/go) to the forest.
- Such _____ (the interest/be) in the wedding of the celebrities, that there were over a dozen photographers.

