

READING SKILL: PERSUADE
IV QUARTER
Fourth Grade A B C
Week of April 25th to April 29th, 2022

NAME: _____

Date: ____ / ____ /2022

- Read the selection below. Then answer the questions that follow.

No matter where you live, it is a good idea to walk rather than use a car. Walking is good for you! The exercise helps to keep you healthy. My dad stopped driving last year and now he's running in races! Walking also cuts down on automobile use. This helps reduce pollution and is a good way to make our town safer. If fewer people are driving, there will be fewer automobile accidents.

1. What is the writer trying to persuade you to do?
 - a. Walk instead of ride in a car.
 - b. Run instead of ride in a car.
2. What is one of the reasons the writer gives for his or her point of view?
 - a. Ride a bike is a good exercise; cars pollute the environment; ride a horse is safer than driving.
 - b. Walking is good exercise; cars pollute the environment; walking is safer than driving.
3. Write an additional reason that supports the writer's point of view.
 - a. Walking is more fun.
 - b. Running is more fun.
4. What example does the writer give to support the statement that walking is good for you?
 - a. The writer's father stopped driving and now he runs in races.
 - b. The writer's father stopped riding and now he runs in races.
5. Has the writer persuaded you to walk instead of ride? Why or why not?
 - a. Yes he has. Because he try to persuade me that is better to drive instead of walk.
 - b. No he hasn't. Because he try to persuade me that is better to walk instead of drive a car.

