Let's Practice

Exercise 1: Read the text and write the missing words. Write one word on each line.

David is 44. He's a policeman. He works at the police, which is in the city. Every day he gets up at six o'clock and on his uniform. He wears a blue hat, a blue jacket and trousers. When he arrives work, he talks to the other policemen who have worked during the night. Then he leaves the police station and goes out onto the city. He tries to stop traffic problems.

Sometimes David helps people when they lose things. Sometimes he catches people have stolen things.

Exercise 2: Look at the picture and read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

A famous player

Jim's father is a journalist and works for a sports magazine. In July, he had to write an article about Michael Rock, a famous footballer, and the magazine called him a meeting that month. Jim was very excited, 'Dad, I can't believe it! Michael rock is my favourite player. Can I come with you when you meet him?' His dad looked at him and smiled. 'Sorry, son. You can't come. This is a business meeting.' Jim was said.

On the day the meeting Jim's dad got in his car to drive to his office. As he was driving, he heard something coming from the back of the car. Jim was hiding there. His father was angry. 'What are you doing here?' he said. 'I can't take you with me'. But it was late and they didn't have time to go back, so they went to the office together. Michael rock was already there. Jim was very happy. His dad took him to another room. 'Listen, Jim. You have to be quiet during our conversation. You can ask him one question when the meeting ends. Do you understand?' 'OK, Dad. I'm very sorry,' Jim said. 'I'll just sit there and be quiet.'

The conversation went very well. Michael Rock was very friendly and he liked Jim and his dad. He even invited them to sit next match and gave them two tickets!
