Today my cartooms are printed in newspapers from coast to coast. Twenty years ago, when I was in fifth grade, they ran in just one- my school paper, the Spy. As I sit by my fireplace, memorys of the awards ceremony that year make me feel even cozyer tan the fire does. Before I get drowzier, I will relate that earlyer event. I had abilitys in drawing. My dutyes for the paper were to write and illustrate a cartoon about the icyest bigfoot creature I could créate- the greediest monster ever drawn. I wanted it to make readers feek horrified and terified. My wish was not denyed. I received the award for scaryest catoon that year. It was the first of several trophys that I have earned and the most satisfying of my victries. Its reflection casts the loveliest glow into my studio.
