

Unit 6-(3)

15

14

Listen to this family planning their holidays. Answer the questions.

1. Who wants to go to the USA?. Why aren't they going there in the end?
2. Why don't they want to stay in the luxurious tent in France?
3. Alice wants to go to Spain?. Where and why?
4. What does mum suggest going?. Why is it the best option?
5. What's the problem with mobile homes?.
6. Why does Ben want to go to Barcelona?.
7. Where did they finally decide to go and why?

Grammar: Can, can't, must and mustn't. Watch the videos
<https://youtu.be/nKTOXSxqRDU>
<https://youtu.be/ZaSLI9yzX8I>
The translate into English the text below

Firhall es un pueblo particular de Escocia. Para vivir allí, debes tener más de 45 años. Los niños pueden visitar Firhall pero no pueden estar más de 3 semanas. No pueden hacer ruidos. Y no pueden jugar al fútbol en la calle. Los residentes pueden tener gato o perro pero no pueden tener pájaros o conejos. Hay muchas reglas en Firhall.

16

Now, let's go to the kitchen. Use the links:

<https://www.languageguide.org/english/vocabulary/kitchen/>

<https://www.languageguide.org/english/vocabulary/bathroom/>
<https://www.languageguide.org/english/vocabulary/bathroom2/>

17

Irish travellers

Listen to this story about Irish travellers and fill in the boxes

Irish travellers _____ and language. They're _____ from Ireland, but now many Irish travellers live in other countries, including the UK and the USA. There are about 30,000 travellers in Ireland today.

Traditionally, Irish travellers lived in small, _____ and they travelled from place to place with horses. Now, about half live in _____ or mobile homes and _____ houses or flats. They still travel sometimes to go to _____.

Irish travellers are _____. They sometimes _____ people who don't understand their culture.

Paul, 13

Yes, definitely! There are too _____ People always say 'you must do this' and 'you mustn't do that'. I think you can have more _____

Beth, 12

No, _____. You can't stay in one place so you have to go to lots of different schools and make new friends all the time.

David, 14

I'm not sure. I think we must respect people from _____ cultures and we mustn't _____ But I love my house! 😊