VOCABULARY Fill in the blanks with the words from the box.

approach sensible happen proud microphone

1. equipment which makes your voice sound louder, often used for recording
   She is singing a song into the _____.
2. feeling very good or happy about something you did
   John feels very _____ to be part of the winning team.
3. to take place
   What do you think will _____ at school today?
4. having good sense
   Sarah is a _____ person who deals with problems well.
5. to come near someone or something
   I watched the train's slow _____ towards the station.

READING Read in chunks. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the words above.

On TV

Yesterday was the most exciting day / of my life. // I was on TV! // Mum, Dad, and I were watching TV / in the evening / and there I was! // This is / how it 1_____: //

I was playing football in the park with my friends when a man and a woman 2_____ us. The man had a camera. The woman had a 3_____.

'I'm from Channel 9,' she said. 'Do you know the programme Kids Speak Out?'

I did know it. I watch it often. It's a weekly programme where kids say what they think about different things.

'Would you like to be on it?' the woman asked me.

I wanted to be on it, but I thought my friends might want to be on it too, so I asked, 'Can my friends also be on it?'

'Sorry, only one of you,' the woman said. 'You can talk about it and decide which of you is going to be on the programme.'

I asked my friends if they wanted to be on the programme. They didn't, so I went on it. The woman asked me a lot of questions. I thought carefully and tried to give 4_____ answers. When she finished, she said I was one of the best kids she'd spoken to! I felt very proud of myself. My mum and dad were 5_____ of me too!

Reading Time

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS