WHO'S GOT TALENT?

Got Talent has been shown in over 60 countries and is now the most popular talent show in the world. Here are two unusual stories from two different countries.

Shaheen Jafargholi

Shaheen was 12 years old when he sang Who's Lovin' You by Michael Jackson on Britain's Got Talent and amazed the judges. He later received an invitation from the singer to perform during his "This Is It" tour. Tragically, Jackson died soon after, so Shaheen wasn't able to sing with his hero, but his family asked Shaheen to sing at Jackson's memorial concert in front of a TV audience of a billion people! He can act, too, having appeared in the soap opera EastEnders, and he'd like to be able to continue with his acting career in the future.

Jennifer Grout

The audience laughed when 23-year-old Jennifer Grout couldn't understand the question, "What's your name?" the first time she appeared on Arabs Got Talent. Jennifer couldn't speak Arabic, but she was able to sing a perfect version of Baeed Annak by the Egyptian singer, Umm Kulthum. One judge commented, "You can't speak a word of Arabic, but you can sing better than some Arab singers!" Jennifer was one of the three finalists, and she hopes that in the future, she'll be able to make an album of traditional Moroccan music.
