RMIT
ENGLISH
WORLDWIDE

Vocabulary review :

Correct the mistake or complete the sentence with the correct word

1. Correct the mistake:

The SARS outbreak was an event of global _significantly_.

_____

2. Correct the mistake:

The SARS outbreak was a _insignificance_ pandemic of global importance.

_____

3. Correct the mistake:

The new _facilitator_ at RMIT are modern and clean with free WIFI for both staff and students.

_____

4. Fill in the gap with the correct word:

_____ (someone who works in medicine) experts all agree that _____
(_a disease that occurs either nationally or globally_) such as COVID and H1N1 will become more common in the future.

5. Correct the mistake:

To cope with future diseases, it's essential that people have _accessed_ to _afford_ medical care.

_____   _____

6. Correct the mistake:

What rate will I get if I _converted_ my RMB into _Australia_ dollars?

_____   _____

7. Correct the mistake:

The weather _predict_ for tomorrow is that it will raining.

_____   _____

8. Correct the mistake:

Secure on public transport has been greatly improved as it's essential that passengers feel securely.

_____   _____

9. Fill the gap with the correct word:

A COVID vaccine gives a person some _____ (_immune_) but that does not mean that they will not catch the virus.

10. Correct the mistake:

COVID is _transmit_ through coughing, sneezing or when a person touches an _infect_ object.

_____   _____