C. Read the text and decide which answer a, b, c or d best fits each gap.

Suriname

The Republic of Suriname shares a border with Brazil and is the smallest country in South America. It has (1) _____ inhabitants, less than half a million. Suriname used to be part of the Dutch Republic and many famous football players, such as Frank Rijkaard and Ruud Gullit, come from Surinamese families and have (2) _____ land and homes there. It has been developing as a tourist (3) _____ for a number of years, particularly its (4) _____ regions on the Atlantic Ocean and the capital, Paramaribo. The (5) _____ city of Paramaribo is a UNESCO World Heritage Site with lovely old buildings and parks to stroll and relax in for a few hours. Visitors to Suriname should not miss the New Year's Eve celebrations, which start in the morning and are full of dancing, music and street parties. At midnight, people light red firecracker ribbons in every town square, which is an impressive (6) _____. In addition, Suriname features a wide range of plant and animal life in its largely (7) _____ Amazonian rainforest. In fact, approximately 30% of (8) _____ country is protected by law as nature reserves.

1. a. few	b. little	c. any	d. a little
2. a. managed	b. approached	c. purchased	d. modified
3. a. destination	b. budget	c. space	d. sight
4. a. convenient	b. coastal	c. active	d. corporate
5. a. dormant	b. homesick	c. grateful	d. picturesque
6. a. decor	b. request	c. wonder	d. spectacle
7. a. gentle	b. spare	c. untouched	d. plain
8. a. a	b. much	c. the	d. -

LIVEWORKSHEETS