

Interpreting Data Set 1

● 1 person

This graph shows: categorical data numerical data

What is question was asked to collect this data?

- a. What do you eat for breakfast?
- b. At what time do you eat breakfast?
- c. How many people eat breakfast with you?
- d. How long does it take you to eat breakfast?

What amount of time is taken by most people to eat breakfast?

How many people do not eat breakfast?

How many children take 4 minutes to eat their breakfast?

How many children take 8 minutes to eat their breakfast?

How many children take more than 10 minutes to eat their breakfast?

How many children take less than 10 minutes to eat their breakfast?

How many children take a minimum of 1 minute and a maximum of 5 minutes to eat their breakfast?

How many children were surveyed to collect this data?

What is does each dot on the graph represent?

Why is this graph called a dot plot?