

Write the correct comparative form next to the adjective. Remember to add ER, IER or Consonant + ER

Bears are fatter than kangaroos. Parrots are better at flying than sharks!

weak weaker
strong _____
quick _____
slow _____

fat fatter big _____ hot _____
thin _____

hungry hungrier
thirsty _____
happy _____
dirty _____

good _____
bad _____

Make a sentence using the comparative form of the adjective and the words in the box according to the picture.

bats bears dolphins kangaroos lions lizards pandas parrots sharks whales

- 1  strong
Lions are stronger than
- 2  good at swimming
are better at swimming than
- 3  slow

- 4  big

- 5  bad at running

Drag and drop the words from the box to complete the text below.

big drink eat forests hippos legs running yellow

Description of an animal

This is my imaginary animal. It is called a 'Shiffler'. Shifflers are purple and (1) yellow. They've got four short (2) _____, long tail and (3) _____ ears. They're smaller than elephants but bigger than (4) _____. They can't climb, but they're better at (5) _____ than tigers! They live in (6) _____ in Africa. They (7) _____ plants, and sometimes they eat bananas. They (8) _____ a lot of water.