

Quiz

Choose the correct word in each sentence.

1. Training that introduces the employee to the business before they start to work is known as
2. Training that takes place away from the business is known as
3. Training where an employee shows another employee what to do is known as

Pause the video while you do this activity

