

LISTENING PRACTICE – LIFE EXPERIENCES

Listen to the conversation and complete the ideas with the experiences Dave has had and hasn't had yet. Use the expressions in the box below. Be careful with the correct form of the verb past participle.

Go to exciting countries	Climb Mount Fuji	Swim in a lake	Sleep under the stars
Go rock climbing	Swim with sharks	See the waterfalls	Eat sushi

Experiences that Dave has had

Experiences Dave hasn't had yet.

Dave has _____.

Dave hasn't _____ yet.

Dave has _____.

Dave hasn't _____ yet.

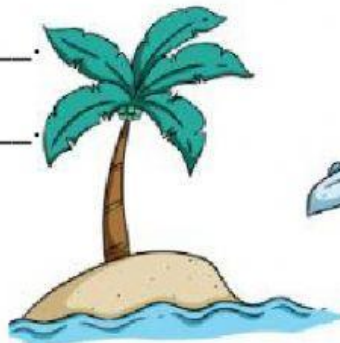

Dave has _____.

Dave hasn't _____ yet.

Dave has _____.

Dave has _____.

Dave has _____.

Now, listen again and fill the gaps with the words or phrases you listen. Be careful with spelling and grammar.

JUNE: Hello, Dave, Is that you?

DAVE: Oh, hi June! What a nice _____!

JUNE: How are you? Are you having a good time?

DAVE: Oh, yes, I'm in _____ right now.

JUNE: Didn't you go to _____?

DAVE: Yes, I did, I have a few great shots of Mount Fuji on a really clear day. I _____ to climb it, but I can say that I've _____ in Lake Biwa and _____ a lot of sushi.

JUNE: I'd love to go to _____, so, after Japan you went to Australia.

DAVE: That's right, Australia is great. I'm having the best time. I've been bush _____ and _____ near Alice Springs right in the center of the country.

JUNE: That sounds awesome! What else have you _____?

DAVE: I've been _____; I've been to the Ningaloo reef and swim with _____. That was beyond my wildest dreams. I'll never forget it. I really _____ Talbot Bay and see the horizontal waterfalls, but there just _____ time.

JUNE: It sounds like you are having a great _____.

DAVE: I really am. _____?

JUNE: Not really, I'm working in my uncle's music store for the _____.

DAVE: That's ok. Well, I have to catch my _____, I talk to you later.

JUNE: All right bye.