Read the following poem at least twice, then answer the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the poem and, unless otherwise indicated, expressed in your own words.

NOISES

5 Street noises
 Cars, trucks, construction, trains
 People talking
 People walking
 Heels clicking, pavements strain
 With the weight of pedestrians.
 A siren screams
 A honking horn
10 Another noisy day is born.
 Screeching brakes
 Breaking glass
 Someone screams within the mass
 Of people.
15

 A little park
 A quiet nook
 A church and solitude
 A rendering of the soul
20 Silence.
 Only the beating of the heart we hear
 As it whispers a silent prayer.
