My holiday in Canada

by thirteen-year-old Ben Carter

This summer, I travelled round Canada with my parents and younger brother Daniel. Our uncle went there last year and told us about all the different things you can do there. It sounded amazing, so we decided to go. I already knew lots about Canada from my lessons at school and couldn't wait to get there.

One day, we went on a boat journey down a river in the Rocky Mountains. The water was freezing cold and very fast moving. We had to practise holding onto the boat so we didn't fall out. Then away we went! It was just amazing! I didn't want it to end, but it wasn't safe to go any further. Only a few metres after the place where we stopped, there was a hundred-metre waterfall.

Another day we went to Drumheller, in the south of Canada, where scientists have found lots of dinosaur bones. As well as going on a tour of the town's museum, we went to watch scientists working outside. One of them let my brother pick up some real dinosaur teeth. Daniel thought it was the best part of the day!

Mum and Dad's favourite bit was walking in the mountains. Daniel and I got bored because we wanted to see some bears, but of course that didn't happen! At the top of one very high mountain, Mum and Dad couldn't believe there was nothing to see for miles. From mountains in Europe, you can always see something – a road or a village if nothing else!

- 26 Ben's family went to Canada because
- A they planned to visit an uncle.
 - B they knew very little about the place.
 - C they wanted to do lots of activities there.
- [1]
- 27 The river journey had to finish because
- A everyone got very cold.
 - B the water became too dangerous.
 - C a passenger fell out of the boat.
- [1]
- 28 What did Daniel like most about his visit to Drumheller?
- A having a dinosaur tooth in his hand
 - B walking round the dinosaur museum
 - C talking to the scientists about dinosaurs
- [1]
- 29 What surprised Ben's parents on the mountain walk?
- A They saw some bears.
 - B Canada seemed so empty.
 - C The mountains were really high.
- [1]
- 30 Why has Ben written this text?
- A to describe some places he visited
 - B to explain about dangers in the mountains
 - C to tell people about daily life in another country
