

Complete the text with a suitable relative pronoun or adverb. Use who, which, when, where and whose.

Elon Musk, _____ was born in 1971, is a South African-born American entrepreneur _____ cofounded the online money-transfer firm PayPal. It was in the early 21st century, _____ he turned his attention to the manufacture of space vehicles. Musk, _____ was the chief executive officer (CEO) of the electric car manufacturer Tesla Motors, was also one of the first significant investors in it.

Musk, _____ became interested in computers at an early age, created a video game _____ he was 12 years old and _____ he sold to a computer magazine. 1988 was the year _____ Musk left South Africa for the United States.

Musk attended Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario, Canada, and in 1992 he transferred to the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia _____ he received bachelor's degrees in physics and economics in 1995. He then attended graduate school in physics at Stanford University in California _____ he left after only two days, believing that the Internet had much more potential to change society than work in physics. Musk subsequently founded Zip2, a company _____ provided maps and business directories to online newspapers and _____ was bought in 1999 by the computer manufacturer Compaq. Compaq bought Zip2 for millions of dollars. Musk then founded an online financial services company, X.com, _____ later became PayPal. The online auction eBay bought PayPal in 2002 for more than one billion dollars.

SpaceX

SpaceX

Long interested in space exploration, Musk in 2002 founded Space Exploration Technologies (SpaceX) to make more affordable rockets. Its first two rockets were the Falcon 1, _____ was first launched in 2006, and the larger Falcon 9 (first launched in 2010). They were designed to cost much less than competing rockets. A third rocket, the Falcon Heavy, _____ was designed to carry nearly twice as much to orbit as its largest competitor for one-third the cost, was first launched in 2018.

Bryan Mitchell—Getty Images/Thinkstock

Bryan Mitchell—Getty Images/Thinkstock

In 2004 Musk became one of the major funders and chairman of Tesla Motors, an electric car company _____ name later became Tesla. In 2006 Tesla introduced its first car, the Roadster, _____ could travel 245 miles (394 kilometers) on a single charge.

In 2013 Musk proposed a high-speed rail system for California called the Hyperloop _____ would use podlike vehicles and _____ system of tubes would carry people through from Los Angeles to San Francisco in 35 minutes at a top speed of 760 miles (1,220 kilometers) per hour, nearly the speed of sound.