CATCHING A BUS:

1. At the bus stop

User 1: Excuse me, I need some information.

Ticket inspector: Sure, _____?

User 1: Could you tell me when the next bus to Parkinton Lane will be here?

Ticket inspector: It will be here in _____ . You seem to be in a hurry.

User: yeah, I have an interview. Are you sure it will be on time?

Ticket inspector: yeap, it's _____

User: I'm counting on it.

Ticket inspector: Good luck in the interview, man.

User: Thanks.

2. Paying for a ticket:

Driver: Good morning. Which stop?

Passenger: Parkington Lane.

Driver: That would be _____

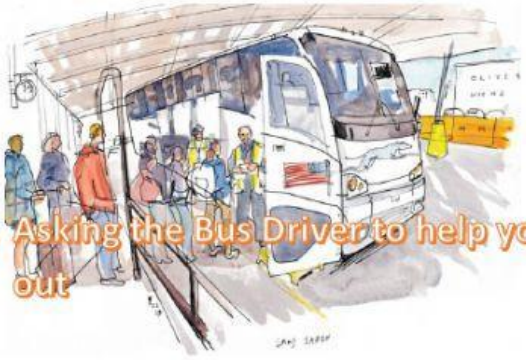
Passenger: Sure, _____ change for $ 10?

Driver: Are you sure you don't have anything less than that?

Passenger: Hmmm, ... let me check, here you go, I have a buck.

Driver: that's _____ , thank you.

Passenger: You're welcome.



3. Asking the Bus Driver to help you out

Passenger: Excuse me, _____?

Driver: Sure, what do you need to know?

Passenger: Well, I've never been to Parkington Lane before, _____?

Driver: Ok, no problem.

Passenger: How far is it?

Driver: _____ from here.

Passenger: _____ ?

Driver: About _____ minutes.

Passenger: Ok, thanks.

4. Talking to a Co-passenger

Passenger 2: Hey man, you look nervous. Is everything all right?

Passenger 1: it's just that I have an interview, you see... It's an interview with my _____ .

Passenger 2: Just calm down, I am sure you'll be just fine.

Passenger 1: I hope so, _____ to?

Passenger 2: I work on Wall Street.

Passenger 1: Oh, my interview is with Lehmann Associates.

Passenger 2: Well, that's where I work. _____ ?

Passenger 1: Sam Worthington.

Passenger 2: I guess you have an interview with Mark Mason then, Am I right?

Passenger 1: yes, that's right! How _____ possibly know that?

Passenger 2: Simply _____ I am Mark Mason.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

AT THE AIRPORT:

1. At the security gate:

Security Staff: Hello, _____ ?

Passenger: Sure: Here it is my ID and my ticket.

Security Staff: Thank you, you may proceed to the check in counter.

2. At the check-in counter:

Staff: Good evening. Welcome to A1 Airlines. Please give me your ticket and ID.

Passenger: Here, they are.

Staff: Thank you. Do you have any check-in _____ ?

Passenger: yes, I have one _____

Staff: Ok, any hand-_____ ?

Passenger: Yes, I am carrying my backpack into the _____ .

Staff: Here's a security tag for your _____ -_____ , please attach the tag to your bag.

Passenger: Thank you.

3. Choosing the seat:

Staff: Would you like the _____ , or the _____ ?

Passenger: I think I would go for the _____ this time.

Staff: Sure, sir. I can give you the _____ .

Passenger: Thanks. That will be very nice.

Staff: You're welcome. Your seat number is _____ .

4. At the baggage checking machine

Staff: Please take out your _____ and _____ and put it in this _____ .

Passenger: Alright.

Staff: You can proceed to the security check. Please remember to collect your _____ after the check.

Passenger: Thank you. I will.

5. At the security check:

Security Staff: Please empty your pockets, and put the contents in the _____ , and hand me your _____ .

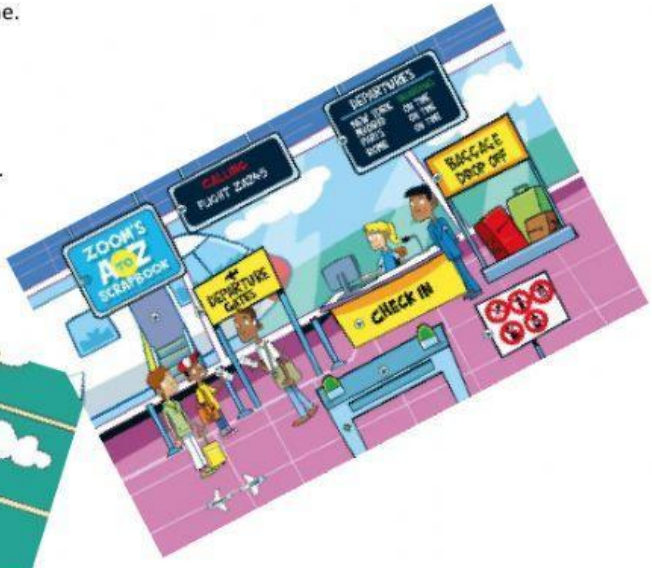
Passenger: Sure.

Security Staff: Please raise your hands and keep them raised while I inspect you.

Passenger: No problems.

Security Staff: Ok, you're cleared to go. Here's your _____.

Passenger: Thank you.



LIVEWORKSHEETS