

What a Geologist Sees

The photograph below shows large boulders scattered across polished bedrock in eastern Canada. Which of the following is the most likely explanation for the presence of these boulders?

Choose one:

- ☐ A. They were deposited during a flood.
- ☐ B. They are pieces of resistant rock left behind by weathering.
- ☐ C. They were deposited by glaciers.