

Adverbs and Adjectives

Hint: most adverbs end with -ly

An adjective tells more about a noun.

The elephant.

The big elephant

An adverb tells more about a verb.

This adverb tells us how the elephant walked.

.....walked

.....walked slowly.

Some adjectives can become adverbs by adding -ly

Adjective Adverb

quick

slow

..... angrily

happy

loud

..... stupidly

awkward crazy

..... clumsily

Some are the same

Adjective Adverb

fast fast

Some are different

good well

Some change meaning

poor poorly

ARTICLE	ADJECTIVE	NOUN	VERB	ADVERB
The	big	elephant	walked	slowly.
The	colourful	parrot	screeched	loudly.
The	slimy	snail	moved	slowly.
The	chubby	baby	laughed	happily.
The	drunk	man	acted	stupidly.
The	little	dog	yapped	noisily.
The	big	dog	barked	fiercely.
The	tired	man	yawned	sleepily.
The	busy	woman	worked	quickly.
The	cranky	boy	stamped	angrily.

Play 'mix and match' with the words above – but don't laugh too loudly!!

Choose the best adverb:

- 1) He carried the glasses
- 2) She washed the dishes and broke 3 plates.
- 3) She stared out of the window
- 4) He ate his food
- 5) The car horn beeped
- 6) He slammed the back door
- 7) The children are playing in the garden.

happily dreamily carefully angrily loudly clumsily hungrily