

Watch a video about different types of Degrees, and then write TRUE or FALSE next to each statement.

1-There are three types of degrees: Associate, Bachelor, and Master's degrees.

2-Associate degrees comprise general education or prerequisite classes and take 3 years.

3-In Health and Technology fields associate degrees take two years.

4-Graduate loans are cheaper than undergraduate loans.

5-PHD refers to Academic Doctor and not Medical doctor.

6-When pursuing a PHD program students work on academic assignments for 4 or 5 hours daily.

7-Students must make original research to graduate from PHD programs.

8-Professional degrees take more time to complete than PHD degrees.

9- Professional degrees are more expensive than PHD degrees.

10- Professional degrees lead into specific careers.