Instructions: Change the direct questions into indirect questions.

1. Where is the bakery?
2. Where can I eat Italian food?
3. When should I visit Panama?
4. Where does she live?
5. What is her name?
6. Are they from Chile?
7. Where is the nearest supermarket?
8. How can I get a visa to go to the United States?

Indirect questions are a way of being polite. They are very, very common in English, especially when you're talking to someone you don't know.

Here are a few common question phrases for indirect questions:

Can/Could you tell me...?

Do you know...?

I was wondering
