Ha Long Bay is a UNESCO World Heritage site in Quang Ninh Province, in the northeast of the Viet Nam. It has got over 1,600 islands and islets. Among the many ancient fishing villages in Ha Long Bay, only Cua Van floating village remains. All the house and building in the village float on huge wooden raft.

The villagers spend their days fishing and looking after the sea life. Then they sail to the mainland to trade their fish for things like food, drinking water or clothes. Most children go to floating school and then spend the rest of their time learning important skills like swimming and fishing. They also help out their parents as much as they can.

Their lifestyle may seem strange to many people, but it's so wonderful to live among such nature beauty and know you are protecting it. The villagers are able to help preserve their beautiful bay because they live directly on the water.
