

1. Complete:

troposphere - wind - atmosphere - temperature - precipitation

Weather phenomena occur in the _____.

Weather is the state of the _____ at a particular time and place.

The weather of a particular place is defined by three elements: _____, _____ and _____.

2. Match and label.

- a. An anemometer measures the speed of the wind in
- b. A thermometer measures the temperature of the air in
- c. A weather vane tells us the
- d. A rain gauge measures precipitation in litres per kilometres per hour.

square metre (l/m^2).
direction of the wind.
degrees Celsius ($^{\circ}\text{C}$).

