

SPAIN IN THE 20th CENTURY

1. Complete the timeline:

2. Complete the sentences with the words from the box:

censorship	suspended conservatives	strikes resigned	General Primo de Rivera Manuel Azaña
------------	-------------------------	------------------	---

- _____ was the first President of the Second Republic.
- The Constitution was _____ and the king lost his powers.
- Freedom of press was suspended by _____.
- _____ established a dictatorship.
- Primo de Rivera _____ in 1930.
- There were many workers _____ during Alfonso XIII reign.
- There were two political parties: liberals and _____.

3. Link:

Alfonso XII	Became king in 1902 when he was 16.
Miguel Primo de Rivera	Was public during the Second Republic
Alfonso XIII	Started the 14th April 1931.
The Second Republic	Died in 1885, his wife Maria Cristina ruled the country until 1902.
Education	Became a dictator in 1923.

4. Organise the sentences (1-6) to explain the Second Republic and the Civil War:

- _____ The Second Republic was proclaimed the 14th April 1931.
- _____ The Civil War ended the 1st April 1939.
- _____ Manuel Azaña was chosen as the first president the 12th April 1931.
- _____ There were some problems between the right - wing and the left wing.
- _____ In July 1936, General Francisco Franco started a military rebellion.
- _____ Spain was divided in areas controlled by the rebels or by the Second Republic.
- _____ As a result, Franco became a dictator.

5. Choose the correct word:

- Francisco Franco started a military/ civil rebellion against the Second Republic.
- The Spanish Civil War started the 1st April/ 18th July.
- One of the reforms done by the Second Republic was: the regional autonomy/ the independence of Cataluña.
- During the Second Republic only men/ men and women could vote.