

DAY 1: Accentism

VIDEO Live worksheet

PART 1: Click on the link to the video,  listen from 0.00 to 1.20 and complete the missing information or choose the correct answer.

In London, the East End accent is called _____.

In Wales, the speech tends to be _____.

In Scotland, the accent is more _____.

The Geordie accent is spoken in _____.

At Buckingham Palace, the accent is considered as _____ (= snobbish).

The Queen's English is called RP and it stands for _____.

What do Brits (British people) with strong regional accents experience? They experience _____.

Complete: They are under _____ to _____ their speech in order to _____ the career _____ or just make a better _____ about themselves.

PART 2: Listen from 1.21 to 1.53 and complete the missing information

Britain might be a _____, multicultural _____ and there's a strong _____ of the problems surrounding _____, _____ and ageism but according to _____, "accentism" here is the last _____ and in a country where class is still so _____, where it's not just money and _____ that stratifies people but also the way they _____, according to many, _____ is just another word for _____.

Have a nice day ☺
Miss Conrard

