

Link the words on the left to their descriptions on the right.

the drops collected in the clouds fall down as rain, snow or hail the sun heats the water from the sea and it causes it to vapour up in the sky the water gathers in the sky in the form of clouds