Task 1. Read the following TV show descriptions and mark with an X the correct name for each TV program.

1. People predict what's the weather conditions for the day or during the week:
( ) commercial ( ) radio news ( ) talk show ( ) weather forecast

2. Actors and actresses perform a character's role dealing especially with domestic situations and frequently characterized by melodrama, ensemble casts and sentimentality:
( ) talk show ( ) soap opera ( ) cartoon ( ) documentary

3. It is a dramatic work with comic effects:
( ) documentary ( ) radio news ( ) comedy ( ) commercial

4. It consists of a spontaneous conversation between a guest and a host:
( ) talk show ( ) weather forecast ( ) cartoon ( ) soap opera

5. It's a short, accurate, factual report about an event, whether a political, social, sporting, or business event to inform the society:
( ) sports TV show ( ) radio or TV news ( ) comedy ( ) talk show

6. It is a paid advertisement that runs on television or radio promoting goods or services available for sale:
( ) documentary ( ) radio news ( ) commercial ( ) soap opera

Task 2. Complete the following conversation using the vocabulary from the box below.

Weather forecast / TV show / News / cooking / Soap opera

David: Paula, what do you do on Saturday night?

Paula: I usually watch TV!

David: Ooh! That's nice, and what TV programs do you prefer?

Paula: Well, I watch_____, I like to be informed. Then, I watch what's on T.V, sometimes shows like "friends", or any_____, I rarely watch shows like: talk, sport, or _____shows.

David: Really? My favorite _____is Friends!

Paula: Of course, when I see a comedy I really have a good time! What about you? Do you like watching TV?

David: Well, I like to see the _____, to know if I need my umbrella, or glasses, but I also watch movies, science fiction movies.

LIVEWORKSHEETS