

A Visit to Dickens Museum

Watch the conversation between Vita (in the kitchen) and Nastia (in the living-room) and do the tasks.

True or False

- Both girls have already been to the Charles Museum.
True False
- Vita finds the guide to be a highly professional woman.
True False
- The exhibits in the museum gave Vita a taste of the past.
True False
- London of Dickens' time was experiencing great changes due to a specific historic event.
True False
- Nastia has a sweet tooth.
True False
- Vita bought a poster of the future event to Nastia as a souvenir.
True False

Choose the correct item

- Which does NOT refer to the guide?
a) charming
b) intriguing
c) knowledgeable
- Which pieces of furniture does Vita NOT mention?
a) sofa
b) desk
c) chairs
- Nastia describes London of that time as place.
a) dirty and violent
b) smoked and charming
c) filthy and comfortable
- What impressed Nastia most during her visit to the museum?
a) filth in every corner
b) fire in the fireplaces
c) smoke from the chimneys
- The girls are going to the museum on Saturday ...
a) to taste cakes
b) to watch a performance
c) to hear about Oliver Twist
- Where did Vita get the information about upcoming event?
a) from a book
b) from a guide
c) from a poster

