

English in a minute #4; 31 ~ 36

31.

something that is very annoying.

32.

means a person does not have any evidence to support his or her argument.

33.

means to be persuaded to do something. Often something you do not really want to do.

34.

you slept very well.

35.

you have become comfortable with doing something, and you are good at it .

36.

means that you are dealing with many responsibilities or problems at one time.

