MANCO CAPAC AND MAMA OCLLO

God Inti (Sun) made his children Manco Cápac and Mama Ocllo left from Titicaca Lake to give them the commitment to establish a human advance. To support them, he gave them a Golden Scepter and asked them to settle in that place where the Scepter would sink effortlessly.

Manco Cápac and Mama Ocllo spent a long time looking for that guaranteed land, until one day, when they landed at the foot of the Huanacaure hill and raised their scepter, it immediately sank.

Manco Cápac and Mama Ocllo established the city of Cusco as was the request of the God Inti.

Manco Cápac, instructed the men to develop the land, to persecute, to set up houses, and different things of advantage. Mama Ocllo taught the women to weave the fleece of the llamas to make clothing, as well as to cook and take care of the house.
