

COUNTRIES AND NATIONALITIES

1) Write the nationalities.

- ❖ Yoshika's from Japan. She's _____
- ❖ Fabio's from Italy. He's _____
- ❖ Paolo's from Brazil. He's _____
- ❖ Dorota's from Poland. She's _____
- ❖ Jiao's from China. She's _____
- ❖ Edvard's from Hungary. He's _____
- ❖ George is from England. He's _____

- ❖ Mikaela's from Mexico. She's _____
- ❖ Karen's from Britain. She's _____
- ❖ Fatima's from Turkey. She's _____
- ❖ Leanne's from the United States. She's _____
- ❖ Anton's from Russia. He's _____

2) Complete the dialogue with the words given.

American Spanish We're from London Swiss British German Mexican holiday you are

- a. Are you on _____?
Yes, we are.
Where are you from?
_____ Manchester.
- b. Are you _____?
No, I'm not Mexican. I'm from Germany. I'm _____.
Are you here on business?
Yes, I am.
- c. This is a nice restaurant! Is it _____?
No, it isn't from Spain. It's from the USA. It's _____.
- d. Are you _____?
No, I'm from the UK. I'm _____.
Where are you from?
I'm from _____.
- e. Sorry.
Are we late?
No, _____ not late. Please, sit down.

PRONOUNS

Change the bold word/s for a pronoun, e.g. you, he, she, etc.

Example: Anna and Tom are from London. → They're from London.

- Diana and I are in room four.
_____ 're in room four.
- The Taj Mahal is in India.
_____ 's in India.
- Are Mark and James in Italy?
Are _____ in Italy?
- Where is Rosa from?
Where's _____ from?
- Mira and Rita are Brazilian.
_____ 're Brazilian.
- Paul isn't in the hotel.
_____ isn't in the hotel.
- You and Sara are in class two.
_____ 're in class two.
- Jim and I are from Oxford.
_____ 're from Oxford.