

Put a, an or the in front of the nouns.

- | | | |
|----------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| 1 ____ address | 5 ____ eye | 9 ____ cat |
| 2 ____ pens | 6 ____ blue pencils | 10 ____ photos |
| 3 ____ old car | 7 ____ rollerblades | 11 ____ watch |
| 4 ____ dogs | 8 ____ teachers | 12 ____ skateboard |

Complete the sentences with a, an, the.

- I've got ____ red pen and ____ green pen. ____ red pen is on my desk. ____ green pen is in my pencil case.
- We've got three exams next week. ____ first exam is maths, ____ second is history and ____ third is science.
- My mum's got ____ orange Fiat and my dad's got ____ blue Renault. ____ Fiat is new, but ____ Renault is very old.
- I've got ten CDs and five DVDs, but I can't play ____ DVDs because my DVD player is broken.
- We've got ____ cat, ____ dog and some mice. ____ cat's name is Sooty and ____ dog's name is Freddy.

I've got some ____ pens in my pencil case. I've also got ____ eraser and ____ pencil. ____ pencil case is in my schoolbag.

I've got some ____ exams next week. There's ____ maths exam on Monday and ____ geography exam on Tuesday. I think ____ maths exam is really difficult!

There are some ____ good films on TV tonight. There's ____ horror film and ____ science fiction film. ____ science fiction film is at 7 p.m. and ____ horror film is at 9 p.m.

My dad has got ____ motorbike and my mum has got ____ old car. ____ motorbike is red and ____ car is blue.

I've got some ____ photos of my family on my phone. But I can't see them because ____ phone is broken.